BIOGRAPHY

Joined Amundi Pioneer*: 2008
Industry Experience: Since 2008

Noah Funderburk is a Vice President, Portfolio Manager, and member of the Securitized Assets team at Amundi Pioneer. Based in Boston, he is responsible for the portfolio management of securitized credit strategies. He specializes in non-agency residential mortgage-backed securities and emerging sectors such as agency credit risk transfer securities and single family rental securities.

Prior to his current role, he was responsible for credit analysis and trade execution with a focus on distressed residential credit securities. In this capacity, Noah spearheaded the development of Amundi Pioneer's most recent generation of loan level models for subprime, alt-a, and prime mortgages.

Noah joined the firm's Quantitative Research Group in 2008 after graduating with high distinction from the University of Colorado, Boulder, where he majored in finance and minored in mathematics and economics as a student in the Quantitative Finance certificate program. He became a CFA® charterholder in July 2012.

* Amundi Pioneer Asset Management (Amundi Pioneer) refers to Amundi's business in the US, formed in 2017 when Amundi acquired Pioneer Investments.
